In Marlborough, Conn., the election resulted in a tie vote.

BROOKLYN is indulging in some costly new eleven-story apartment houses.

PHILADELPHIA elected an ex-convict to the common council. He ran as a Republican.

SENATOR SHERMAN is said to be maturing a bill to secure a full and fair vote in the South.

The legislative elections in Massachusetts seem to have turned in favor of biennial sessions.

It is suggested that Sherman and Foraker should have remained in Virginia to grow up with the solid South.

MINNESOTA is to have an extra session of the legislature to redistrict the state on the basis of the new census.

The Hartford Courant had the returns from every town in the state but one at 12 o'clock on the night of the election.

GEN. LOGAN denies that he waved the bloody shirt. The general seems inclined to quibble—a very unprofitable inclination.

The state senators and forty-five representatives were re-elected in New York. Two-thirds of the legislature will be new men.

The Albany Journal regrets that many Republicans think Davenport was buried in a Foraker lot. This is another Ohio chestnut planter in New York.

The Richmond Whig says: There is no problem left after Appomattox. All that is required is obedience to the laws, with a reciprocal observance of mutual rights.

SENATOR SHERMAN wants the Richmond Dispatch to publish 20,000 copies of his Mount Gilead speech and circulate them in Virginia at his expense. He probably thinks the people would call for a new election on the strength of it.

RODERICK SANDERSON, a well-known desperado, who was long ago run out of Kansas for horse-stealing, died on the 6th inst., in a New York dive. He had been outlawed all over the West. Three of his brothers were hanged for murder, two of them at the yard-arms of ships.

Gov. SWINEFORD is probably mistaken about the value of Alaska as a farming country, but there are other things it is doubtless good for. Its rugged mountains are full of mineral wealth, its waters teem with fish, its harbors are good and its forests will be valuable.

"You are very late sending your evening mail out," said an editor to his daughter, when he came home at 2 in the morning, and met a timid, shrinking young man between the front door and the gate. "Not at all," answered the thoughtful girl; "Charles Henry is now a morning edition."

CAPT. EADS tells a New Orleans interviewer that bank protection, which has absorbed so much of the attention and appropriation of the United States river commission, cannot produce an increase in the navigable depth of the river and that he can't help but believe that the largest portion of the expenditure made for this purpose has been wasted.

WILLIAM TILLOT, a bachelor, liv- near Clarksville, was found dead in his room Monday morning, the 26th ult., his body lying in the fire-place partially consumed by fire. He was subject to severe attacks of vertigo and it is supposed this was the cause of his falling into the fire. Deceased was about 85 years old and had been a resident of Pike county since 1818.

The Christian church of Missouri, at its recent annual state meeting at Carthage, resolved to raise an endowment fund of $250,000 to be divided between Christian university at Canon, Lewis county, and Christian Female orphan school at Camden point, Platte county. The university buildings were erected before the war at a cost of $75,000.

A girl who had just been admonished by her mistress to be very careful in "washing up" the best tea things, was overheard shortly afterwards in the kitchen, indulging in the following soliloquy, while in the act of wiping the sugar basin: "If I was to drop this 'ere basin, and was to catch it, I s'pose I shouldn't catch it; but if I was to drop it, and wasn't to catch it, I reckon I just should catch it."

WORKLEY was one of the first to write in defence of the Revolution in England, but his arguments failed to convince his own wife. She was guarded, however, and discreet, so that she remained a Jacobite twelve years before her husband found it out. Finally he noticed one day that she did not say amen to his prayer for King William. Being asked why, she boldly declared that she did not believe him to be her king.

The Washington Post proposes "Cleveland and Fitzhugh Lee" as the Democratic ticket in 1888—an excellent ticket, strong and likely to be successful. Unfortunately Mr. Cleveland would not support it. That he might even go so far as to oppose it, there is reason to believe, since he recognizes "in the eligibility of the president for re-election a most serious danger to that calm, deliberate and intelligent political action which must characterize a government by the people."

OLDEN TIMES

The formula by which Mischler's Herb Bitters is compounded is over two hundred years old, and of German origin. The entire range of proprietary medicines cannot produce a preparation that enjoys so high a reputation in the community where it is made as

MISCHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

It is the best remedy for Kidney and Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Cramp in the Stomach, Indigestion, Malaria, Periodical Complaints, etc. As a Blood Purifier, it has no equal. It tones the system, strengthening, invigorating and giving new life.

The late Judge Hayes, of Lancaster Co., Pa., an able jurist and an honored citizen, once wrote: "Mischler's Herb Bitters is what I need, and has acquired a great reputation for medicinal and curative purposes. I have used it and in my family several bottles, and I am satisfied that the reputation is not unwarranted."
